

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

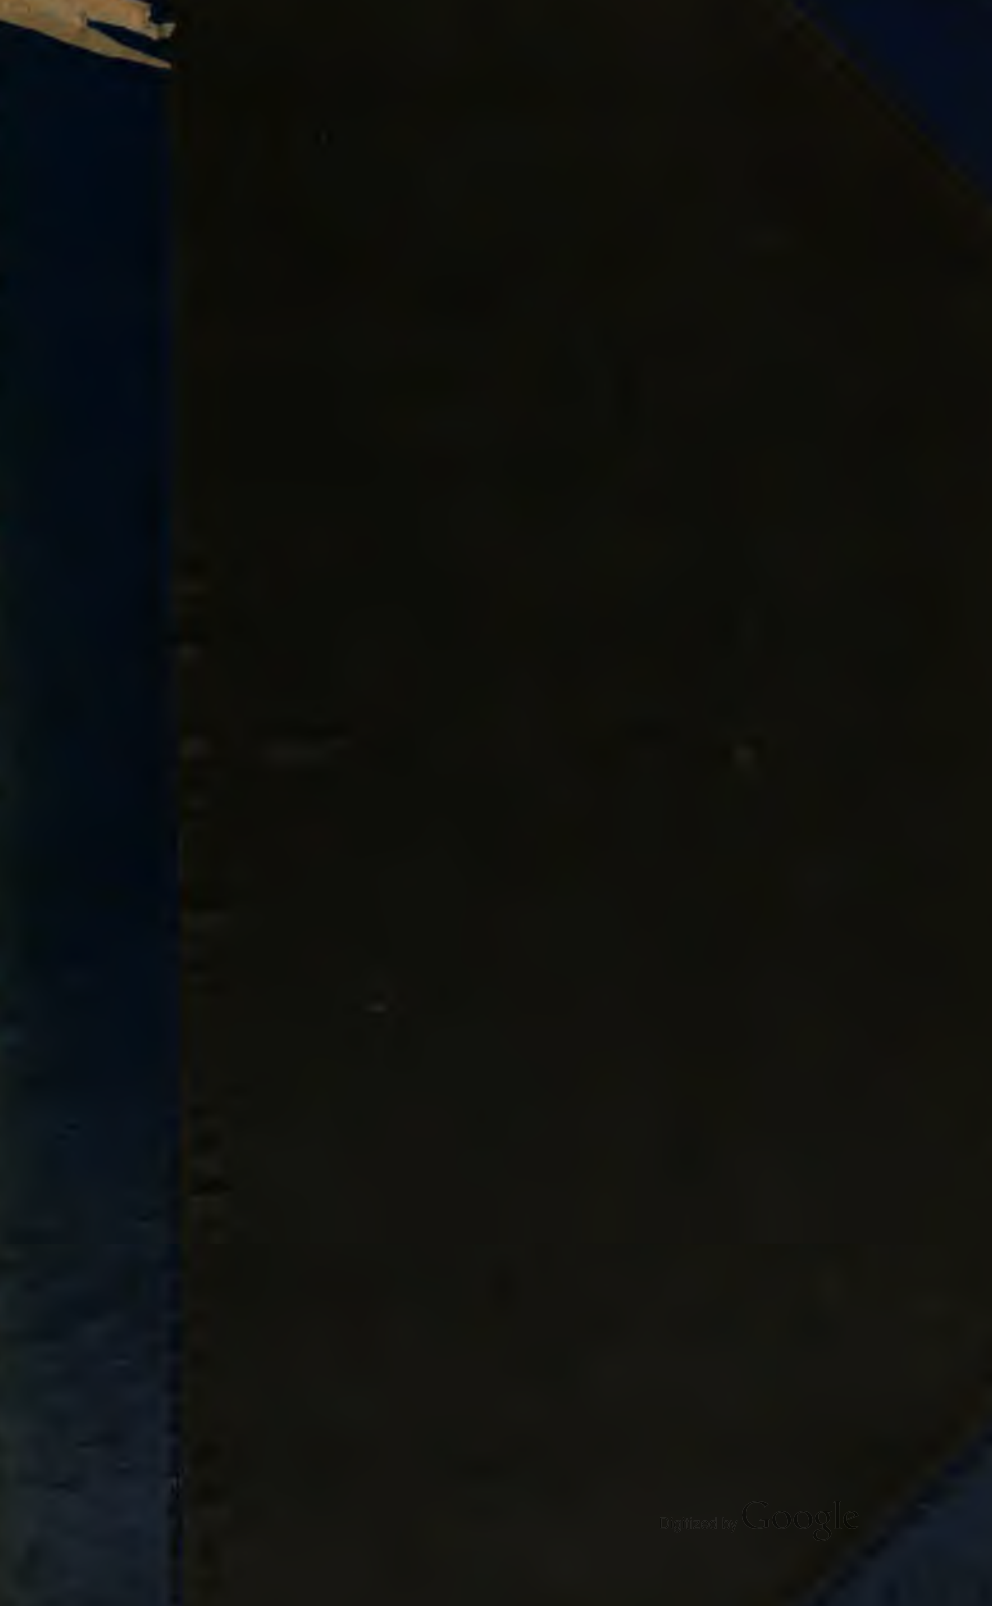

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

"This curious work abounds with interesting literary history, anecdotes of Bostonians, &c."—Blackwood's Mag., vi. 26. Lowndes mentions a portrait, but it is evident, from the lines preceding the title-page, "The author's speaking picture," that none was published with this volume. Eighty-four pages are occupied with the account of his visit to New England, his opening a bookstore in Boston; intercourse with the Mathers, John Cotton, Eliot, Hubbard, Indian sachems, and several ladies of Boston, of some of whom he relates very curious particulars. Reprinted with alterations, explanations, and additions, as below:

EASTBURN (R.) A Faithful Narrative of the many Dangers and Sufferings, as well as wonderful and surprising Deliverances of Robert Eastburn, during his late Captivity among the Indians: Together with some Remarks upon the Country of Canada, and the Religion and Policy of its Inhabitants, the whole intermixed with devout Reflections. Published at the earnest Request of many Friends, for the Benefit of the Author. With a commendatory Preface, by the Rev. Gilbert Tennent. Philadelphia: Printed by Wm. Dunlap. 1758. 8vo, pp. 45. N. + Philadelphia: Printed. Boston: Reprinted and Sold by Green & Russell, Opposite the Probate-Office in Queen-Street. 1758. 8vo, pp. iv, 34. J.C.B., M., P., W. 21664

The author was taken prisoner in March, 1756, near Oswego, by a party of French and Indians, and taken to Canada. After being cruelly treated by both, and carried to various parts of the country as far as Montreal, he made his escape to Quebec, where he received better treatment, and was sent to England. Thence he took ship for Boston, and reached his family in Philadelphia after an absence of twenty months. Both editions are rare, the first especially so. See Green (Ashbel), for a reprint.

This abridgment was made by Taylor the Platonist. In the prefatory advertisement to this work, after complimenting the author, who is "ranked among the first historians of the day," the publisher adds, that "the avarice of his bookseller has placed this valuable fund of knowledge and entertainment in the reach only of the opulent;" avarice, also, most probably produced this abridgment. The following differs:

Folio, Title, Half-Title, Dedication, 4 l., Approbation, etc., 2 l., De Bibliothecâ Eguiaræ, 72 unnumbered leaves, Text, pp. 544. 22060

The only volume published of this rare and valuable work. It contains the most authentic notes on the literature and literary men of Mexico, and became the basis of Beristain's celebrated "Bibl. Hisp. Amer.," which appeared sixty years later. Eguiaza was one of the most talented members of the Academy of Mexico. "It is unfortunate that no more of this important work was published. It is probable that not many copies were printed of this volume, as it is not often met with."—RICH, 1. 115. The remainder of the manuscript was said to be preserved in the Library of the Cathedral of Mexico. Leclerc's collation seems to differ from ours. "Ouvrage curieux, mais don't il n'a paru que le premier volume."—BRUNET.

EGUIARA Y EGUREN. [Begins:] Selectas Dissertationes Mexicanas meas ad Scholasticam spectantes Theologiam, publicam daturus in lucem, etc. Folio, 16 l. 22065

A fragment of a work of Eguiaza, probably the preface of "Selectæ Dissertationes Mexicanæ," in which he gives an interesting account of all the celebrated men, attached, for two centuries, to the Academy of Music. The paper is, therefore, a valuable contribution to the literary history of Mexico.

J.C.B. 22142

A volume of the greatest rarity. It was reprinted as

ELIOT. A Brief Narrative of the Progress of the Gospel among the Indians of New England. 1670. By Rev. John Eliot. With Introductory Notes. By W. T. R. Marvin. Boston: John K. Wiggin & Wm. Parsons Lunt. 1868. Sm. 4to, pp. 36. BA. 22143

One hundred and seventy copies printed, twenty of which are on large paper.

ELIOT. The Christian Commonwealth: or The Civil Policy of The Rising Kingdom of Jesus Christ. Written before the Interruption of the Government, by Mr. John Eliot, Teacher of the Church of Christ at Roxbury in New-England and now published (after his consent given) by a Servor of the season. London: Printed for Liverwell Chapman, at the Crown, in Popes-Head-Alley. [1659.] 4to, 11 l., pp. 35. J.C.B. 22144

The original edition is almost unique. It is reprinted in "Mass. Hist. Coll.," Vol. ix., Third Series. "On the 18th of March, 1660, the Governor and Council of Massachusetts passed a formal judgment of condemnation against this book, as they found it 'ful of seditious principles and notions.' It was most rigorously suppressed, and Eliot was forced by the General Court, in the following May, to hand in a humiliating written recantation, which was posted in the public places of all the chief towns of the Colony." See Francis' "Life of Eliot." Sold, at Puttick's, in 1854, for £5 12s.

Communion of Churches: | or, | The Divine Management of Gospel Churches | by the Ordinance of | Councils, | Constituted in Order according to the | Scriptures. | As Also, | The Way of bringing all Christian | Parishes to be particular Reforming | Congregational Churches: | Humbly Proposed, | As a Way which hath so much Light from the | Scriptures of Truth, as that it may lawfully be | Submitted unto by all; and may, by the blessing | of the Lord, be a Means of Uniting those two | Holy and Eminent Parties, | The Presbyterians and Congregationals. | As Also | To Prepare for the hoped-for Resurrection of the | Churches; and to Propose a way to bring all | Christian Nations unto an Unity of the | Faith and Order of the Gospel. | Written by John Eliot, Teacher of | Roxbury in N. E. | Psal. i. 10. That ye may try the things that are excellent. | 1 John 4. 1. Try the Spirits. | Cambridge: Printed by Marmaduke Johnson. 1665. | 16mo, Title, pp. 38. 22145

The verso of the title reads: Although a few Copies of this small Script are | Printed; yet it is not published, onely [sic] committed | privately to some Godly and Able hands, to be Viewed, | Corrected, Amended, or Rejected, as it shall be found to | hold weight in the Sanctuary Ballance [sic] or not. ... The procuring of half so many copies written and | corrected, would be more difficult and chargeable, then [sic] | the Printing of these few ... | John Eliot. | Beyond any doubt this is the first privately printed American book. Martin, in his "Catalogue of Books Privately Printed," notices but seven titles during the entire century in which this interesting little volume was printed. The only copy we know was sold by us to William Menzies, of New York; it is uncut, and has manuscript alterations by a contemporary hand—probably by Eliot himself.

Cotes, for Fulk Clifton, and are to bee | sold at his shop under Saint Margaretts Church on | New-fish-street-Hill, 1647. | 4to, Title, 1 l., pp. 25.* 22146

This forms No. II. of the series of tracts published by the Corporation. It was reprinted as

[ELIOT.] The Day Breaking if not the Sun Rising of the Gospel with the Indians in New England. ... New York: reprinted for Joseph Sabin. 1865. 4to, pp. 32. B. 22147

Edition, 250 copies, of which 50 are on large paper. Forms No. IX. of Sabin's seprints, quarto series.

ELIOT. The Dying Speeches of several Indians. [n. p. n. d.]
18mo, pp. 12. G.B. 22148

Reprinted, the preface excepted, in "The Sabbath at Home," [June, 1868, pp. 333 et seq.] It is also reprinted, with the preface, in the Prince Society's edition of "Dunton's Letters." The date of 1665, which has been assigned to it, is doubtless incorrect, as on page 25 following, Eliot speaks of John Speen and Anthony as living in 1670, whose "Dying Speeches" are given in the tract named.

Simmons for the Corporation of New-England, 1659.* | 4to, 5 l., pp. (1), 35, (1). 22149

This forms No. ix. of the series of tracts issued by the Corporation. It is a tract of much rarity. Pages 22 to 35 consist of "Some Helps for the Indians ... By Abraham Pierson. London: M. Simmons. 1659," having a separate title-page, it is occasionally found by itself; it forms, however, a part of this tract. It ends abruptly: "The reason why there is so short an imperfect specimen given of it ('Some Helps') is because the ships came away from N. E. before any more of the copy was wrought off from the presse." It was reprinted, omitting Abraham Pierson, with the following title:

Collation: Title, 1 l.; Dedication to King Charles II, 2 l.; List of Books, 1 l.; Text, A to M m m m m in 48; usually followed by the New Testament, as described, infra. Some copies have the Indian title, which reads: Mamvsee | Wunneetupanatamwe | Up-Biblum God | naneeawe | Nukkone Testament | kah wonk | Wusku Testament. | Ne quoshkinnumuk nashpe Wuttinneumoh Christ | noh asooewait | John Eliot. | Cambridge: Printenooop nashpe Samuel Green kah Marmaduke Johnson. 1663.

The Indian title to the New Testament reads : Wusku | Wuttestamentum | Nul-Lor-dum | Jesus Christ | Nuppoquohwussuseneumum. | [Stars.] Cambridge | Printed by Samuel Green and Marmaduke Johnson. mdcxii. Collation : 1 l. blank ; Title, 1 l. ; Epistle Dedictory ; Text, A³ to verso of L⁴, then Aa to Xx in 4s, making 4 l. and pp. 126. The "stars," whose place is indicated above, form a diamond-shaped ornament, composed of thirty-two printer's flowers, which is wanting in some issues. In some copies of the New Testament, in Luke, the heading at the top of the page, which has Chapter xxi, reads "10;" and for Chapter xxiv, the numeral is "15." These errors are corrected in some copies; but, in correcting it apparently, the last letter in the catch-word on page L³ was pushed into the margin, and it stands thus, "waabe h." This is said to occur in all copies where the headings have been corrected. These last two peculiarities are, accordingly, not confined to the second issue with the English title-page, as O'Callaghan (p. 9) affirms. There are other variations, partly caused by the binder, and the curious collector is referred to Dr. E. B. O'Callaghan's list, page nine, for a description of them. Following the New Testament are the Psalms in Indian metre, translated by Eliot, from the Bay Psalm-Book, without a separate title-page, but with a heading as follows : "VVame Ketohomae uketohomaongash David." Sometimes A to N³, and two pages containing a short Indian catechism, in all 50 l. The description by Dr. O'Callaghan inferentially conveys the idea that each copy of Eliot's Bible should have the title-page both in Indian and English. I have never met with a copy in that condition, and incline to believe that the title-pages were used indiscriminately by the binder. It is usual to find the work with an English title-page to the Old Testament, and an Indian title-page to the New Testament, or vice versa. It is probable that all the copies sent to England had the title to the Old Testament in English. Notwithstanding the fact that not less than fifteen hundred copies were printed, this has become an extremely rare book; many copies are known, but they are mostly in public libraries, and, when offered for sale, its price is not less than about a thousand dollars. E. B. Corwin's copy was bought by J. C. Brown, in 1835, for two hundred dollars; and John A. Rice's copy sold, in 1870, for one thousand and fifty dollars; and copies in England have sold for two hundred and fifty pounds during the year 1871. Among the many points of interest which this book possesses, not the least is the fact that it is the language of a nation no longer in existence, and is almost the only monument of the race; another, that it is the first Bible published in this country. The very sight of it caused Cotton Mather to exclaim : "Behold, ye Americans, the greatest honor that ever you were partakers of! This is the only Bible that ever was printed in all America, from the very foundation of the world." The names of the books are retained as in the English versions, and such words as were unknown to the Indians are retained with an Indian termination, such as cherubimlah, etc. The longest word is (Mark, i., 40) : "Wuttepsittukqussunnoowehtunkquoh," signifying "kneeling down to him." It is certainly a very great typographical curiosity; and, it is said, that there are not now more than two persons living who can read the language in which it is written. Mather, in his "Magnalia," mentions that Eliot wrote the whole of this great work with one pen. Thomas, in his "History of Printing," supposes, if this was so, it must have been a metal pen, and not a goose quill. That, however, by no means follows. The Corporation for Propagating the Gospel among the Indians seems to have felt great interest in the publication of this Bible. In 1660, they engaged Marmaduke Johnson, and sent him to America to assist in printing that Bible, and, in a letter dated "Cooper's Hall in London, April 28. 1660," and directed to the Commissioners of the United Colonies, they write : "Wee have out of our desire to further a worke of soe greate consenment, agreed with an able printer for three yeares upon the termes and conditions enclosed. Wee desire you at the earnest request of Mr. Johnson, the printer, and for his encouragement in this undertaking of printing the Bible in the Indian language, his name may bee mentioned with others as a printer and person that hath been instrumentall therein; for whose diet, lodging and washing wee desire you to take care of." The commissioners, in their answer, say : "The printers doubt not but to print a sheete every weeke, and compute the whole to amount to a hundred and fifty sheets," which the collation shows to be nearly the fact. Thomas' "History of Printing" says that twenty copies only of the dedication to King Charles were printed; but O'Callaghan doubts the correctness of this statement. It appears, from a "Postscript" to Eliot's "further Accompt ... London, 1659," that "Genesis, Matthew, and a few Psalmes in Meeter" had already been "printed in their own Language," but there are no known copies of any or either of these books.

Collation: Title, 1 l.; Text, A to Ppppp in 4s; then "VVvskv," etc., 1680, as below; in all, 607 l.; Old Testament, 425 l. Mr. Eliot also had the superintendence of this edition; and, in his letter to the Hon. Robert Boyle, President of the Corporation, he acknowledges the reception of nine hundred pounds sterling, in three payments, for carrying it through the press. Eliot, however, had to give part of his salary towards printing the work. For the English title, see O'Callaghan's list. The New Testament has a separate title-page, as follows:

Collation: Title, 1 l.; Text, Ar to Kk³ in 4s; the Psalms in Metre, Kh³ to Yy⁴; Catechism, 1 l.; in all, 182 l. After the New Testament follow the Psalms in Indian metre, as in the first edition, without separate title-page, but with the following heading: "Wame Ketsôhomae ukersôhomaongash David." When this edition occurs for sale, it usually has the Indian title. A writer in the "Mass. Hist. Coll.," viii. 12-33, states that Eliot's "Indian Grammar" is printed in some editions of the Indian Bible. Such instances must be considered exceptional; I have never seen it. O'Callaghan's "List" includes a copious list of errata. The copy in the Public Library at Boston has a dedication to the Honorable Robert Boyle, and the first word in the title is spelt "Mamvs's." The dedication has been printed in facsimile by George Livermore, Esq., of Boston; it is also reprinted in O'Callaghan's list. Eliot was aided in this edition by Josiah Cotton, son of Rev. John Cotton, of Plymouth, who was well acquainted with the Indian language.

A volume of extreme rarity; but few copies are known. It is not quoted by either Lowndes or Brunet as having occurred for sale. Mr. Bartlett has reprinted the dedication in the "Cat. of the Library of J. C. Brown." Reprinted as below:

Eliot also translated Baxter's "Call," see our No. 4012, and Bayly's "Practice of Piety," see our No. 4076, into the Natick dialect. See also Shepard (T.), Sibellius (Mc), "Strength out of Weakness," and Thorowgood (T.) John Eliot, the celebrated missionary among the Indians, was nearly sixty years pastor of the church at Roxbury, in Massachusetts. He is usually called "The Apostle of the Indians." He made every exertion to promote the welfare of the Indian tribes—he stimulated many clergymen to engage in the missionary work; and, although he mourned over the stupidity of many, who preferred darkness to light, yet he lived to see twenty-four of the copper-colored aborigines fellow-preachers of the Gospel. He possessed an influence over the Indians which no other missionary could obtain, and was their shield in 1675, during Philip's war, when some of the people of Massachusetts, actuated by the most infuriate spirit, intended to have destroyed them. He suffered every abuse for his friendship to them; but nothing could quench the divine charity which glowed in his heart. He died, May 20, 1690, aged about eighty-six years, saying his labors were poor and small, and exhorting those who surrounded his bed to pray. Concerning Eliot, see "Mass. Hist. Coll.," First Series, Vols. I., II., VIII., X.; Second Series, Vol. X.; and Third Series, Vol. IV. Also his life by Francis.

This does not relate to America, but is often included in catalogues of books on America, because it settles the important question of the approximate date of printing of the "Copla der Newen Zeytung auss Presillg Landt," discovered by Humboldt, "Examen Critique," note B., Vol. v., pp. 239-258, and by Vernhagen and Ternaux Compans, as to the priority of Magellan's discoveries. This tract is by the same printer, in the same type, and with the identical woodcut arms of Portugal on the title. Oeglin succeeded Otman, who printed the "Vesputius" in 1504, and is not known to have printed anything after 1516. Thus we may fairly conclude that the "Presillg Landt" was printed by Oeglin about 1513, and hence Humboldt was wrong in dating it from internal evidences between 1525 and 1540. This tract is also curious in showing the fact that a tract printed in Rome in 1513 could be transmitted to Augsburg, translated and reprinted in twenty-six days.

"Apparently the first book printed in Spanish relating to America; — unknown to Robertson. Enciso having gained a considerable sum in St. Domingo by practicing law, was induced by Ojeda to join him in an exhibition of discovery and conquest to the continent of America. After suffering great hardships and hairbreadth escapes, which are related by Herrera, he returned to Spain, and published this work for the instruction of Charles v. The account of America is principally from his own observations." — RICH. "We must add that Martin Fernandez de Enciso first came to the New World with Rodrigo de Bastidas, was Alguazil Mayor of the Golden Castil, and the owner of the vessel as well as the planner of the expedition in which Vasco Nuñez de Balboa acquired so much fame. A great hydrographer and explorer, his work is invaluable for the early geographical history of this continent." — HARRISSE.

The author declares the theories of Grotius, De Laet, Hornius, and other writers on the origin of the Americans untenable — that America was peopled (before the Deluge) by a race superior to the present — that the Deluge did not extend to America, and that the principal theories of the Deluge are erroneous, particularly that of Whiston.
He gives his own theories on all these points, as well as upon many others of equally high interest, not excluding the origin of the negro. See also "M. Rev.," xxxvi. 531; xxxvi. 535; and Faribault, No. 222.

ENTICK (J.) The General History of the Late War : Containing its Rise, Progress, and Event, in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America. And Exhibiting The State of the Belligerent Powers at the Commencement of the War : their Interests and Objects in its Continuation ; and Remarks on the Measures, which led Great Britain to Victory and Conquest. Interspersed with the Characters of the able and disinterested Statesmen, to whose Wisdom and Integrity, and of the Heroes, to whose Courage and Conduct, we are indebted for that Naval and Military Success, which is not to be equalled in the Annals of this, or of any other Nation. And with Accurate Descriptions of the Seat of War, the Nature and Importance of our Conquests, and of the most remarkable Battles by Sea and Land. Illustrated with A Variety of Heads, Plans, Maps, and Charts, Designed and Engraved by the best Artists. By the Rev. John Entick, M.A. And other Gentlemen. London : Printed for Edward Dilly. M.DCC.LXIII. 5 vols., 8vo, (4), pp. 495 ; 464 ; 480 ; 480 ; 469, (27). 36 Portraits and 9 Maps. + London : Edward and Charles Dilly. M.DCC.LXVI. 5 vols., 8vo. ERCILLA Y ZUÑIGA. An Appendix to the Civil and Political History of Chili, consisting of a Sketch of the Araucana of Alonzo de Ercilla, with Copious Translations from that Poem by Wm. Hayley and Rev. H. Boyd. New York. 1808. 8vo.

The noblest heroic poem in Spain. Voltaire ranks the author with Virgil, Tasso, and Camoens. It is a real historical record of the endeavors of the Spaniards to subjugate a nation whose independence they were forced to recognize in 1773. "Ercilla wrote in the spirit in which he fought; and his principal work is as military as any portion of his adventurous life. Its subject is the very expedition against Arauco which occupied eight or nine years of his youth; and he has simply called it 'La Araucana.'" — TICKNOR, II. 461.

Escala Espiritual para llegar al Cielo, Tradocido de Latin en Castellano por el Venerable Padre Fr. Juan de la Madalena, Regioso Dominico. [Mexico: Juan Pablos. Circa 1535.]

This "Spiritual Ladder" was the first book printed in Mexico; but there is no known copy in existence. Señor Icazbalceta has communicated to Mr. Harris a learned and interesting dissertation concerning this and other Mexican imprints, which will be found in the "Bibl. Am. Vet.," pp. 365-376. This book should have been described under Climacio (Juan), and our reference from No. 9812, should now read, "See Escala Espiritual." The real name of the translator was Juan Estrada. He is supposed to have been a native of Mexico, and to have died in 1579, says Antonio ("Biblioth. Hisp. Nova, l. 686"). Fernandez gives the date 1535 to this work; Davila says 1532.

Kaladlit Assilialiait [or some Engravings Designed and Engraved on Wood by Eskimos of Greenland.] Godthaab, Greenland. 1860. 24 Plates in 4to, representing 30 subjects. 22860

These interesting engravings are the result of some experiments made between the years 1858-1860, to determine whether among the Eskimos there existed taste or genius for this branch of the arts. They were all engraved, and, with the exception of Nos. 1 to 8, designed by five or six natives, without any other assistance than the furnishing of the wood and of the most necessary instruments. The greater part of these engravings are the work of an Eskimo named Aron, who has received no more than the common education of his countrymen.

Segunda parte. Mexico: F. de Zuniga y Ontiveros. 1792. Folio, pp. 605, 1, 4 l. H. 22896

A rare and important work, containing much information relative to the early missions and the Indian tribes in New Mexico, Texas, and other parts of North Mexico, and also in those of Guatemala, Honduras, Chiapas, and other portions of the old viceroyalty of New Spain. Its rarity, when complete, is owing to the long time which elapsed between the publication of the first and of the second volume. The author was a Franciscan missionary of high standing in Mexico, being the President to the New Hospice of St. Ferdinando. Quaritch prices a copy at sixteen guineas.

First edition, of extreme rarity. Perhaps no book in any language was ever the parent of so many imitations, and the source of so many fictions as this, the original of the buccaneers of America. Mr. F. Muller, of Amsterdam, whose learned researches on the subject of Dutch books relating to America, entitle his opinions to great respect, remarks: "This is the rare original edition of a book, the importance of which is, I believe, plain to every one who knows only one-tenth of the novels, imaginary voyages, books for youths, and for other people, comedies, and tragedies which have been taken from it by almost every European nation; so that to collect all that literature might be the task for a man's life. There is certainly no other book of that time which experienced a popularity simillar to that of the 'Buccaniers of America,' which was, in the ten years following its publication, translated into most of the European languages; and there is a fact most curious in the literary history of all times, that the original was certainly unknown to all translators but one. They were all inclined to take the Spanish edition for the original; nay, even the learned editors of Mr. Grenville's catalogue seem doubtful whether the Dutch edition existed in print, or in MS. only. I leave it to amateurs more learned than myself to decide whether this is owing to the fact of so few people studying the Dutch language, or to the scarcity of the book, and shall only add that it is not mentioned by Rich or by Ternaux, which both contain the Spanish, English and French translations, while Ternaux notices a large number of Dutch books of minor importance. As to myself, I never saw more than two copies before, which were sold to American amateurs." In a recent catalogue, Mr. Muller describes a copy, "on large thick paper. Extremely rare." The first account of the buccaneers is to be found in G. Klaes Compaaen's "Zee-Rover. Amsterdam. 1663." See our Nos. 15015-16, Vol. IV.

This is a new and very much altered edition of No. 23468. The second part is a translation of the voyages of Sharp and others. The plates are also new.

This is evidently a German translation of Exquemelin.

First edition in Spanish, translated from the Dutch, and the plates copied from it. The English version is a translation of this Spanish edition. Some original verses precede the Spanish text, describing American localities, among which mention is made of Labrador, Terra-Nova, Norumbega, etc.

Thornbury, in his preface to an account of the buccaneers, describes a Spanish edition dated 1684; but the many errors in his list lead me to question this.

First French edition, of extreme rarity, translated from the Spanish. The author's name is rather singularly changed. The translation was made by M. de Frontignières. In 1689 the Journal of Ravenau de Lussan first appeared, and was republished in 1692, and is afterwards generally added to the work. Editions of Oexmelin, with this addition, appeared in 3 vols., 12mo, in 1699. We have seen De Lussan's Journal above, with the date of 1705.

Vol. iii. is Ravenau de Lussan; Vol. iv., Johnson's "Pirates," first published in French in 1726.

The same as the Trevoux edition of 1744. "Mr. Eyries, in the 'Biographie Universelle,' says that the French translation, first printed in 1686, was published from the MSS. of the author by Frontignières; who, he says, printed the work as if translated from the English, which no doubt was the case; but Mr. Eyries appears to have been ignorant of the existence of any other edition, in any language." — Rich.

As there is some difficulty in recognizing the editions of this work, except de viso, we give the following minute collation: Title, 1 l., "To the Reader," 5 l., Part i., pp. 115; Part ii., pp. 151; Part iii., pp. 124, Table, 6 l. Sometimes followed by Ringrose, and called Vol. ii., Title, 1 l., "To the Reader," 7 l., Text, pp. 212, "Table," pp. 15, "Catalogue," pp. 7; Plates at pp. 95 and 102 of Part i., at pp. 1, 38, 60, 80, and 134 of Part ii., at pp. 31 and 54 of Part iii., and at p. 98 of Part iv., map at p. 212, and several maps with the text. This Part iv. consists of Sharp's voyage, and is perhaps more properly part of the second edition. Its title is, "Bucaniers|of|America,|The Second Volume|Containing|The Dangerous Voyage and|Bold Attempts of Captain Bartholomew|Sharp, & Others; performed upon the|Coasts of the South Sea for the space of two years, &c. | From the Original Journal of the said Voyage. | Written | By Mr. Basil Ringrose, | Gent. Who was all along present at those Transactions. | London, | Printed for William Cooke, &c. 1685." | In a Catalogue issued by Puttick and Stevens, a copy of the work is described as large paper. All the copies we have seen have an unusually large margin, but we have not met with a large paper copy. The following is from the "London Gazette" of June 8, 1685, and probably refers to this first edition: "Westminster, June 1. There have been lately Printed and Published two Books, one by Will. Crook, the other by Tho. Malthus, both Intituled The History of the Bucaniers; both which Books contained many False, Scandalous and Malicious Reflections on the Life and Actions of Sir Henry Morgan of Jamaica Kt. The said Sir Henry Morgan hath by Judgment had 'n the King's-Bench-Court, recovered against the said Libel £20 Damages. And on the humble Solicitation and Request of William Crook, hath been pleased to withdraw his Action against the said Crook, and accept of his Submission and Acknowledgement in Print." — STEVENS.

This is apparently an abridgment of the foregoing. It is a small volume of great rarity.

EXQUEMELIN. Bucaniers | of | America : | Or, a True | Account | of the Most Remarkable Assaults | Committed of late Years upon the Coasts of | The West-Indies, | By the Bucaniers of Jamaica and Tortuga, | Both English and French. | Wherein are contained more especially, | The unparallel'd Exploits of Sir Henry Morgan, our English | Jamaica Hero, who sack'd Puerto Velo, burnt Panama, &c. | Written originally in Dutch by John Esquemeling, one of the Bucaniers, | who was present at those Tragedies, and Translated into Spanish by | Alonso de Bonne-maison, M.D. &c. | The Second Edition, Corrected and Inlarged with two | Additional Relations, viz. the one of Captain Cook, and the other of | Captain Sharp. | Now faithfully rendred into English. | London : | Printed for William Croeke, at the Green Dra- | gon without Temple- | bar. 1684. | 4to. 23481

Collation : Part I., 6 l., pp. 47 [really 55, as pp. 46 and 47 should read 54, 55; pp. 42 and 45 bis should read 50, 51]; Part II., pp. 80; Part III., pp. 84, Table, 6 l. The Second Volume, Part IV., 8 l., pp. 112, Table, pp. 17. 4 Plates and 3 Maps, besides Cuts and Engravings in Text. This edition, in regard to its paper, type, etc., is much inferior to the edition described in No. 23479, supra. The title to the second volume is the same as that given in the note above. See also Ringrose (B.)

Collation same as for 1684, omitting 1 leaf for title of second volume, the two being joined and bound as one. Rich says that this is the second edition of 1684 (our No. 23479), with new title-page, and that the fourth part 's exactly the same as the original edition of 1685.

EXQUEMELIN. The History of the Bucaniers of America; from their First Original down to this Time; Written in Several Languages; and now collected into one Volume. Containing
i. The Exploits and Adventures of Le Grand, Lolonois, Roche Brasiliano, Bat the Portuguese, Sir Henry Morgan, &c. Written in Dutch by Jo. Esquemeling one of the Bucaniers, and thence Translated into Spanish. ii. The Dangerous Voyage and Bold Attempts of Capt. Barth. Sharp, Watlin, Sawkins, Coxon, and others, in the South Sea. Written by Basil Ringrose, Gent. who was a Companion therein, and examin'd with the Original Journal. iii. A Journal of a Voyage into the South Sea by the Freebooters of America from 1684, to 1689. Written in French by the Sieur Raveneau de Lussan: never before in English. iv. A Relation of a Voyage of the Sieur de Montaubon, Capt. of Freebooters in Guinea in the Year 1695, &c. The whole newly Translated into English, and Illustrated with 25 Copper Plates. London: Printed for Tho. Newborough at the Golden Ball in St. Paul's Church Yard, John Nicholson at the King's Arms in Little Brittain, and Benj. EXQUEMELIN. The History of the Bucaniers: etc. [Title as in No. 23483.] The Third Edition. London: Printed for Tho. Newborough. 1704. 8vo. 23485

Collation the same as in the edition of 1699. Rich says: "The third edition of this 'History of the Bucaniers' is somewhat different from the former: 'for whereas the style before was loose and uncouth in divers parts thereof, the same is now rectified and made more correct throughout the whole body of it.'" — Preface. It has the Journals of Lussan and Montauban.

[EXQUEMELIN.] The History of the Buccaniers of America. Containing I. The Exploits and Adventures of Le Grand, Lolonois, Roche Brasiliano, Bat the Portuguese, Sir Henry Morgan, etc. II. The Dangerous Voyage, and Bold Attempts of Capt. Sharp, Watlin, Sawkins, Coxon, and others in the South-Sea. III. A Journal of a Voyage into the South-Sea by the Freebooters of America, from 1684 to 1689. IV. A Relation of a Voyage of the Sieur de Montauban, Captain of the Freebooters in Guinea in the Year 1695. Exhibiting a particular Account and Description of Porto Bello, Chagre, Cuba, Havanna, and most of the Spanish Possessions on the Coasts of the West Indies, and also all along the Coasts of the South-Sea; with the manner in which they have been invaded, attempted, or taken by these Adventurers. The Whole written in several Languages by Persons present at the Transactions. Translated into English, and Illustrated with Copper-Plates. In Two Volumes. The Fourth Edition. "The book is, to this day, the only authentic account we have of the Indians of the Pampas."—SIR W. PARRIS. "A judicious author."—Biog. Univ. Also highly commended by Dr. Pritchard. See also "M. Rev.," LI. 409. It is to Falkner that the world is indebted for some of the stories about the great stature of the natives of Patagonia. He asserts that such was their height, that, when in a sitting posture, they were almost as tall as the commodore of the ship. Navigators who preceded Falkner had made similar statements; but recent visitors, who have seen many of the natives, state that they are no taller than Europeans.

The Federalist: A Collection of Essays, written in Favour of the New Constitution, as agreed upon by the Federal Convention, September 17, 1787. New-York: J. and A. McLean. M,DCC,LXXXVIII. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. vi, 227; vi, 384. BA., c.

First edition in a collected form. Mr. Madison's papers were much changed in the subsequent editions. Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, and 64 were written by Mr. Jay; Nos. 10, 14, 17, 18, 19, 21, 37 to 58, 62 and 63, were written by Mr. Madison; the remainder by Gen. Hamilton. There are copies of this edition on large and thick paper. Lowndes, in noticing this work, says it was "a periodical paper, in which John Williams, alias Anthony Pasquin, was concerned," which is a remarkable blunder. John Williams, under the pseudonym of Anthony Pasquin, wrote a poem called the "Hamiltoniad," which may have led Lowndes into the mistake; but Richard Grant White, in a note to Burton's "Book Hunter," undertakes to put the matter right, and credits James Munroe with a share of the authorship, which, for an American, is a still more remarkable blunder.

The Federalist: A Collection of Essays, written in favour of the New Constitution, as agreed upon by the Federal Convention, September 17, 1787. ... New-York: Printed and Sold by John Tiebout, No. 358 Pearl-Street, 1799. 2 vols., 12mo, pp. vi, 227; vi, 384. c. 23980

This is our No. 23979, with a new title only. According to Mr. H. B. Dawson, it is very rare, as he was unable to find it.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution. By Publius. Written in 1788. ... To which is added Pacificus, on the Proclamation of Neutrality. Written in 1793. Likewise, The Federal Constitution, with all the Amendments. Revised and Corrected. ... New York: George F. Hopkins. 1802. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. viii, 317, (1); v, 351. c., H. 23981

This edition was probably edited by William Coleman, and was the last issued during Hamilton's life, and the text is much altered. See Dawson's introduction, page lxx-lxxii.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution; written in 1788, by Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Jay, and Mr. Madison. To which is added Pacificus, on the Proclamation of Neutrality; written in 1793, by Mr. Hamilton. A New Edition, with the Names and Portraits of the several writers. New York: Williams & Whiting. 1810. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. iv, 368; iv, 368. 3 Portraits. 23982

This is, in fact, Vols. II. and III. of Hamilton's works, as edited by John Wells.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution; written in 1788, by Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Jay, and Mr. Madison. A New Edition, with the Names and Portraits of the several writers. Philadelphia: Benjamin Warner. 1817. 8vo, pp. 477. 3 Portraits.

The portraits are from the same plates as the New York edition of 1810, and the name of the printer omitted.

The Federalist. [Title as in No. 23983.] Philadelphia: Benjamin Warner. 1818. 8vo, pp. 504. 3 Portraits. 23984

The same as the edition of 1817, with the addition of an appendix.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution, written in the Year 1788, by Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Madison, and Mr. Jay, with an Appendix, containing the Letters of Pacificus and Helvidius, on the Proclamation of Neutrality of 1793; Also, the Original Articles of Confederation, and the Constitution of the United States, with the Amendments made thereto. A New Edition. The Numbers Written by Mr. Madison corrected by Himself. City of Washington: Jacob Gideon, Jun. 1818. 8vo, pp. 671.

Reissued in 1821, with a new title-page only. Mr. Dawson doubts the existence of an Hallowell edition of 1827, which has been cited. Mr. Homes, of the New York State Library, supposes that the real date is 1837, in which supposition I agree.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution, written in the Year 1788, by Alexander Hamilton, James Madison and John Jay, with an Appendix ... A New Edition ... Washington: Thompson & Hemans. 1831. 8vo, pp. vii, 3-420. c. 23986

Mostly a reprint of the edition of 1818, with an elaborate index.

The Federalist ... [Title and text as in No. 23985.] Hallowell, (Me.): Glazier & Co. 1826. 8vo, pp. 582. H. 23987

In one of Mr. Gowans' catalogues, an edition is described, Philadelphia, 1826, 8vo, pp. 582, which is probably an error as to the place.

The Federalist, on the New Constitution, written in the Year 1788, by Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Madison, and Mr. Jay. With an Appendix, containing the Letters of Pacificus and Helvidius on the Proclamation of Neutrality of 1793. ... A New Edition. ... Hallowell: Glazier, Masters and Smith. 1837. 8vo, pp. 500. c. + [Ibid.] 1842. 8vo, pp. 484. 23988

Mr. Dawson refers to a prospectus of an edition, 1845; and I have a slip from an auctioneer's catalogue, No. 200 or thereabouts, circa 1850, Washington. 1845. 8vo. The British Museum Catalogue cites an edition, 2 parts, Philadelphia. 1847-1845.

The Federalist ... [with] the Letter of Washington, as President of the Convention, to the President of Congress; the Act of Congress in relation to the Election of President ... Sixth Edition, with ... Index ... Philadelphia: R. Wilson Desilver. 1847. 8vo, pp. (2), v, 392, Pacificus, etc, 102. BM. 23989

The "Letter of Pacificus" has the imprint, Washington: J. and G. S. Gideon. 1845, which will account for the quotation in the British Museum Catalogue, and leads to the inference that this 1847 edition is a reissue of the apparently unknown edition of 1845. There is an edition cited in Mr. Bartlett's List, Washington: J. & G. S. Gideon. 1847. 8vo

The Federalist, on the New Constitution, written in 1788, by Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Madison and Mr. Jay. With an Appendix, containing the Letters of Pacificus and Helvidius on the Proclamation of Neutrality of 1793; also, the Original Articles of Confederation, and the Constitution of the United States. New Edition. Hallowell: Masters, Smith & Co. 1852. 8vo, pp. 496. + [Ibid.] 1857. 8vo, pp. 496. 23990

The Fœderalist: A Collection of Essays, written in Favor of the New Constitution, as agreed upon by the Fœderal Convention, September 17, 1787. Reprinted from the Original Text, with an Historical Introduction and Notes. By Henry B. Dawson. In Two Volumes. New York: Charles Scribner & Co. 1854. 8vo, pp. cxlii, 1 l. blank, pp. 615. Portrait of Hamilton.

Vol. II. is not yet (1873) published; but the entire text is included in this volume. In the later issues all mention of Vol. I. is omitted. 250 copies printed on large paper, with the imprint, Morrisiana, N. Y. 1864; also six copies on extra thick paper. The introduction includes a careful, elaborate and rather redundant bibliography. This Mr. Dawson calls the twenty-first edition in book form, and "the result of a careful examination of the work, in its various forms, editions and versions, and of a long-continued and anxious study of the important subject on which it treats;" but the text is a reprint of the first issue.

The Federalist. A Commentary on the Constitution of the United States. A Collection of Essays, by Alexander Hamilton, Jay and Madison. Also the Continentalist, and other Papers, by Hamilton. Edited by John C. Hamilton. ... Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott. 1864. 8vo, pp. clxv, 659, vi. BA. 23992

One hundred copies were printed on large paper, in imperial 8vo, and divided into two volumes, with the imprint, Philadelphia. 1865.

Le Fédéraliste, ou Collection de quelques Écrits en faveur de la Constitution proposée aux États-Unis de l'Amérique, par la Convention convoquée en 1787; Publiés dans les États-Unis de l'Amérique par MM. Hamilton, Madison et Jay, Citoyens de l'État de New-York. Paris: Buisson. 1792. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. lii, 366; 2 l., pp. 511. H. 23993

The translator was M. Trudaine de la Sablière, who added an introduction and many notes. Mr. Dawson says it was reproduced without the introduction — Paris: Buisson. 1792, — and in 1795 it was reissued with the same title, except that Jay is corrected to Jay. Paris: Buisson. An 3e la République. 2 vols., 8vo, pp. (4), xxiij–lii, 366; (4), 506. It is probable that all three are the same edition, in fact — the introduction, for some reason, having been omitted in the second issue of 1792, and in this of 1795.

The original edition of this interesting work. See "Bibliotheca Grenvilliana." There is an extract from his "Relacion" in the "Lettres édifiantes et curieuses," Paris. 1839, II. 153-168. This highly esteemed work was printed fifty-four years after the death of the author, who was one of the most zealous and active missionaries among the Chiquito Indians of Paraguay. It contains interesting details concerning this large tribe, as well as of the tribes adjacent. Father Fernandez died in 1672, just as he was making arrangements for founding a mission in the Grand Chaco.

FILSON (J.) The Discovery, Settlement And present state of Kentucke: and An Essay towards the Topography, and Natural History of that important Country. To which is added, An Appendix, Containing, i. The Adventures of Col. Daniel Boon, one of the first Settlers, comprehending every important Occurrence in the political History of that Province. ii. The Minutes of the Piankashaw Council, held at Post St. Vincents, April 15, 1784. iii. An Account of the Indian Nations inhabiting within the Limits of the Thirteen United States, their Manners and Customs, and Reflections on their Origin. iv. The Stages and Distances between Philadelphia and the Falls of the Ohio, from Pittsburg to Pensacola, and several other Places.—The Whole illustrated by a new and accurate Map of Kentucke and the Country adjoining, drawn from actual Surveys. By John Filson. Wilmington: Printed by James Adams. 1784. 8vo, pp. 118. Map. B., BA., H., P. 24336

The map is usually wanting, and has been supposed not to exist; it is in the copy in the Philadelphia Library. It is a rare book, and worth from twenty to thirty dollars. It was reprinted with the following title:

FILSON. The Discovery, Settlement, and Present State of Kentucky. And an Introduction to the Topography and Natural History of that Rich and Important Country; also, Colonel Daniel Boon's Narrative of the Wars of Kentucky: with An Account of the Indian Nations within the Limits of the United States, their Manners, Customs, Religion, and their Origin; and the Stages and Distances between Philadelphia and the Falls of the Ohio; from Pittsburgh to Pensacola, and several other Places. FLETCHER. Proclamation by His Excellency, Benj. Fletcher, Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of New-York, etc. to the Inhabitants of the Province of New-York, to erect a Beacon: Given at Fort William Henry, the 25th day of August, 1693. Printed and sold by William Bradford, Printer, to their Majesties King William and Queen Mary, at the City of New-York. 1693.

This is the earliest known specimen of printing in the province of New York. On the 23d of March, 1693, the Council passed a resolution encouraging a printer to settle in New York, "for the printing of our Acts of Assembly and public papers," (Coun. Min., vi. 182). On the 24th of April following, Gov. Fletcher set out from New York for Philadelphia, whence he returned on the fifth June, 1693, (Coun. Min., vi. 194, 202). Thomas, in his "History of Printing," Vol. II., gives a relation of the persecutions which drove Bradford from Pennsylvania to New York in 1693. It is presumed, from the above data, that he was induced by Gov. Fletcher to remove here, and that he accompanied his excellency on the latter's return to New York in June, 1693.

"A work of considerable importance for the ecclesiastical history of Spanish North America. The details are narrated with great fullness, with names, dates, and circumstances, with authorities and bibliographical citations." — STEVENS. Florence was a native of Florida, and perhaps his own name as well as that of his native country formed the chief reason for his persistent and often recorded worship of the "florida imagen." His works contain historical matter burdened with much idolatry. This last work was a posthumous publication. Also: *La casa peregrina, o Historia de Nuestra Señora de Loreto. An important set of books, by the greatest antiquary Spain has produced, called by Mr. Ford, in his "Handbook of Spain," "The Dugdale, Muratori, and Montfaucon of Spain," was originally commenced in 1747, on the plan of the "Gallia Christiana," and the "Italia Sacra" of Ughelli, and continued throughout all political vicissitudes. It is at present "continuada por la Real Academia de la Historia." It is not finished, but Tomo 1. was published in 1866. It is useful for the ecclesiastical history of the Spanish American colonies.

A volume of the greatest rarity. The only known copy in America is in Mr. Lenox's library. Rich priced it, in 1830, at thirty guineas, and says "Frodida," which is an error, repeated by Ternaux, No. 76, and Brunet. It is reprinted in facsimile in Vol. 1. of "Collecção de opusculos reimpressos relativos à historia das navigações. ... Lisboa. 1844." 4to, pp. 8, xii, 139. For a French translation, see Histoire, 24864, supra. The following translation differs from our No. 24865, supra, i. e., A Relation.

Virginia | richly valued, | By the description of the maine land of |
Florida, her next neighbour: | Out of the foure yeeres continuall trauell and discouerie, | for above one thousand miles East and West, of | Don Ferdinando de Soto, and sixe hundred | able men in his companie. | Wherein are truly obserued the riches and fertilite of those parts, | abounding with things necessarie, pleasant, and profitable | for the life of man: with the natures and dispo- | sitions of the Inhabitants. | Written by a Portugall gentleman of Eluas, emploied in | all the action, and translated out of
Portugese | by Richard Hakluyt. | *At London | Printed by Felix
Kyngston for Matthew Lownes, | and are to be sold at the signe of the
Bishops | head in Pauls Churchyard. | 1609. | 4to, pp. (8), 180.*

A rare volume, priced, in the "Nuggets," at five guineas. It is reprinted in Force's "Tracts," Vol. iv., No. 1., in the supplement to Hakluyt's "Voyages," 4to, and omitting Hakluyt's preface, in French's "Hist. Coll.," Vol. ii. The introduction says that Hakluyt's intention in this translation "was to encourage the young colony in Virginia." The title, under which his second edition appeared is,

The | Worthye and Famoys His- | tory of the Travailes, Dis-
couery, & Conquest, of that Great | Continent of Terra Florida, being liuely | Paraleld, with that of our now Inha- | bited Virginia. |
As also | The Comodities of the said Country, | with diuers Excellent and rich Mynes, of Golde, | Siluer, and other Mettals, &c.
which cannot but | giue vs a great and exceeding hope of our |
Virginia, being so neere | of one Continent. | Accomplished and effected, by that worthy | Generall and Captaine, Don Ferdinando |
de Soto, and six hundreth Spaniards, his followers. | London | Printed for Mathew Lownes, | ... 1611. | 4to. 24897

Both editions are of extreme rarity. I have never seen the first. Mr. Duyckinck, in compiling his Cyclopædia, had recourse to a manuscript copy. The author resided at Sherburne Town, i. e., Nantucket, and was Dr. Benj. Franklin's maternal grandfather. Franklin says the poems are written with "a manly freedom." See "Bibl. Ang. Poetica," p. 30, and Duyckinck, i. 73, where the poem is reprinted.

FOLLETT (F.) History of the Press of Western New-York ... by Frederick Follett ... with the Proceedings of the Printers' Festival, held ... in ... Rochester ... Jan. 18, 1847. Rochester: printed by Jerome & Brother. 1847. 8vo, 1 l., pp. 76. H., s.

The following Address, and particular instances as to the Duties demanded on Prize Goods brought into Jamaica, were sent from that Island by the Governor, Council and Assembly, in March 17th: Whereupon an Act pass'd in the Ninth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, That Prize Goods should not be liable to the Demand of Duties by Vertue of an Act, Entitled, An Act to Encourage to Trade to America for the future: And all Proceedings upon the Bonds enter'd into were ordered to be staid until a clear State of those Bonds could be had from Jamaica, and laid before this present Parliament. Since then an Account of the said Bonds has been transmitted by the Governor, Council and Assembly of Jamaica to the Lords Commissioners of Trade and Plantations, as well as by the Collector of Her Majesty's Duties in the said Island, to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs in Great Britain; which Account is hereunto annexed. Folio, pp. 4, Account, a folded sheet.

A reply to this is entitled, "An Answer to some False and Malicious Objections given out, to prevent the Duties on Prize Goods being remitted, with some Observations."

8vo, pp. xvi, 352. Portrait, Map, and 10 Plates. B., BA. 25035

The author was one of the first of the Anglo-Saxon race to explore this, till lately, unknown country; he reaped the reward of his enterprise by securing the possession of the great quicksilver mines, now worked by the firm of which he is the head. Mr. Forbes says that "if the country round St. Francisco bay were only peopled, that port would engross the commerce of the coast." He also refers to the total absence of gold and silver in the region! Tempora mutantur.

Fifth Series. ... to ... September 3, 1783. ... Washington. 1848-1853. 3 vols., folio. 25053

This great storehouse of British Colonial and American history was printed by order of the United States Government. It was the intention to divide the work into six series, from 1493 to 1789. The nine volumes described are all that have appeared, and the further progress of the work is suspended. The manuscript of the unpublished series is in the Library of Congress. See "N. Am. Rev.," XLVI. 475.

FORCE. The Declaration of Independence, or Notes on Lord Mahon's History of the American Declaration of Independence. By Peter Force, Esq. ... London: G. Willis. 1855. 8vo, pp. 66.

This remarkable piece of criticism, by one who knew well whereof he was writing, first appeared in a series of articles in the "Daily National Intelligencer." The papers having been revised by the author, were sent to a friend in London, who, out of compliment to Mr. Force, had a few copies privately printed.

FORCE. Grinnell Land. Remarks on the English Maps of Arctic Discoveries, in 1850 and 1851, made at the Ordinary Meeting of the National Institute, Washington, in May, 1852, By Peter Force. [Washington: printed for Private Distribution. 1852.] 8vo, pp. 23. Map. B., BA. 25055

FORCE. Tracts and other Papers, relating principally to the Origin, Settlement, and Progress of the Colonies in North America, from the Discovery of the Country to the Year 1776. Collected by Peter Force. Washington: Printed by Peter Force. 1836-1846. 4 vols., 8vo. B., BA. 25059

A most interesting and valuable series of reprints of the rarest of tracts relating to America, all of which are noticed in this dictionary, under their respective names. See "N. Am. Rev.," XLIII. 274. Also: A Directory for the Public Officers, the Library, Offices, and Committee Rooms, in the Capital; ... Washington City: Davis & Force. 1820. 12mo, pp. 20. BA. Mr. Force collected a very large library, mostly relative to American history, which he sold to the Library of Congress.

Les Forces de l'Europe, Asie, Afrique and Amérique, ou description des principes villes avec leurs forteresses, etc. Nouvelle édition mis en meilleur ordre que les précédentes, beaucoup augmentée et divisée en 20 tomes. Enrichie de plusieurs magnifique Edifices, Jardins, etc. A Paris: chez l'auteur et se vend à Leide chez P. van der Aa. [1726.] 20 pts. in 2 vols. 25062

This very rare work is a collection of plans and views of the most remarkable cities and fortresses in Europe. In this edition sixteen plates of American subjects are added, mostly published before in other works, and afterwards reproduced anew (but with large borders and cartouches) in the "Galerie agréable du monde." It was originally published by N. de Fer, at Paris, in 8 vols., containing 170 plates; these were copied by P. Mortier, at Amsterdam, and augmented to 249 plates, in 14 vols. These copies were bought by P. van der Aa, who reissued them with other plates, augmented to the number of 509 in this edition. See Muller's "Books on America," No. 2.

Calphurnius, Janus Lascaris, &c., mais il faut absolument l'accompagner d'une Edition plus ancienne: entre lesquelles je choisirais celle de l'an 1506. in Fol." — CLEMENT. "The chapter 'de iv permaximis insulis,' &c., is on folio 412. This truncated edition, with the valuable chapter xvii, however, was republished at Venice, 1547, folio." — HARRISSE. The Spanish translation of Foresti does not contain the chapter relating to Columbus. This writer belonged to the noble family of Foresti of Bergamo. On entering the monastery of the Augustines at that place, he assumed the name of Jacopo Filippo. As his books bear on the title "a Jacobo Philippo Bergomensc," or "Bergomate," i. e. of Bergamo, he is often called simply Bergomensis or Bergomas, as if that were a family name.

The Four Indian Kings' Speech to Her Majesty on the 20th April, Translated into Verse by T. S., with their Effigies taken from the Life and Curiously Engraved by S. N. London. 1710.

One folio sheet, containing four portraits, and the speech underneath. Very rare. Here is a specimen of the poetry :

"Great Queen!

A tedious voyage from near Canada,
On that vast continent, America,
A voyage our predecessors ne'er did make,
Nor could prevailed with be to undertake," etc.

These Indian chiefs went to England with Colonel Schuyler of New York, and attracted great observation throughout the kingdom, giving rise to a paper in the "Spectator," No. 50. Dean Swift, in his letters to Stella, also makes reference to the subject. For other particulars, see Smith's "Hist. of New Jersey," p. 366, and "Proceedings of the New Jersey Hist. Soc.," ix. 16. The Antiquarian Society, at Worcester, has a set of their portraits.

After page 168 are two leaves paged 170, 172, 170, and blank, which are said to be cancelled leaves. There are several other errors in the pagination. After page 79 the next is page 100, and the hiatus is not supplied; the other errors are corrected by duplication; signature Bb is incorrectly paged 225-232 instead of 205-212. This very rare collection of early voyages towards making a discovery of the North-West Passage, contains many important facts and judicious observations on the ice, tides, compass, northern lights, etc. Fox started on this expedition on the 28th April, 1631, and the result of his exploration is related in this very rare volume. The map is often deficient, or supplied by a facsimile. A perfect copy is worth over a hundred dollars.

A large portion of this volume relates to America. The second part of the volume, with separate title, consists of Ulric Smith's "Indian Voyages," which was afterwards printed as a distinct volume.

FRANCK. Warhafftige Beschreibung aller und mancherley sorgfeltigen Schiffarten, auch viler unbekanten erfundenen Landtschafften, Insulen, etc. Auch von mancherley gefahr, Streytt und Scharmuzeln so sich zu Wasser und Land zugetragen. Item von Straubingen. [Hans Staden von Homburg's Reise, etc.] Frankfurt: Sig. Feyrabend. 1567. 2 vols., folio, 6 l., pp. ccxliii, 7 l.; 5 l., pp. 110, 59, (1). c. 25472

FRANCK. Werelt-Spiegel, Beschryvinge des gehelen Aertbodems, met sijn vier gedeelten, Europa, Asia, Africa, America, etc. V verbetert en vermeerdt ... door J. Phocylides Holwarda. Bolswart: S. v. Haringhouch. 1649. 4to. 25473

"The corrections and additions of Holwarda are placed at the end of the description of each part of the world. Those to America fill four pages. Holwarda speaks here somewhat disdainfully of Frank's geographical notions of America. He calls them perfectly confused, and we must agree with him on seeing that in the description of America, Frank inserts an account of Senegambia, Cap-Verde, etc." — MULLER.
